

Welcome to new CRRMH Staff

The Centre for Rural and Remote Mental Health would like to welcome several new staff members:

- Bernadette Orange
Intervention Nurse, Palliative Care Project

Bernadette commenced work for the Centre in April and works in the Dubbo and Orange areas on the palliative care project titled 'Improving the psychological wellbeing of family caregivers of home based palliative care patients: a randomized controlled trial'.

- Tracey Carnie
Specialist Project Officer (Women and Younger People)
Drought Mental Health Assistance Program (DMHAP 2008)

Tracey commenced work for the Centre in June 2008 and is based in Orange.

- Ian Long
Specialist Project Officer (Indigenous Communities)
Drought Mental Health Assistance Program (DMHAP 2008)

Ian commenced work for the Centre in June 2008 and is based in Orange.

- John Polain
Specialist Project Officer (Older Farmers)
Drought Mental Health Assistance Program (DMHAP 2008)

John commenced work for the Centre in July 2008 and is based in Orange.

- Lyndy Urane
Project Officer

Lyndy commenced work for the Centre as Project Officer for the Introduction to Rural Mental Health Practice and also the Australian Rural Mental Health Study (ARMHS).